

Friends of the Norman Williams Public Library

The FRIENDS OF THE NORMAN WILLIAMS LIBRARY, a non-profit tax deductible organization formed for the benefit of the Library, invites you to join us. We hope to provide special programs, activities and events that will augment the Library's mission to enrich the intellectual and cultural life of the greater Woodstock community.

In 2014, we had brainstorming sessions, social gatherings, a presentation from a guest speaker on the highly successful Friends group in East Orleans, Massachusetts and a wonderful Meet the Author event with Meg Noonan Lukens who wrote the brilliant book The Coat Route. . Future hopes and plans include discussion groups on current events, mystery writers, films, a foodie panel, an art symposium, dramatic presentations , concerts – all the things that make the Library the heart and soul of a dynamic and exciting environment But we need you!

If you would like to become a Friend of the NWPL, please fill out the following form. Annual membership levels are:

Individual: $20      Couple: $35      Family: $50      Sustaining : $75 or more ***

* Sustaining members will receive a cotton book bag with our handsome NWPL logo .

Thank you for your support.
