Legacy Society members have demonstrated their commitment to preserve the library for the next generation. Their commitment ensures that Norman Williams Public Library will continue to be a valuable community resource in the future. The NWPL Legacy Society, our planned giving program, is comprised of individuals who have named the library in their long range philanthropic plan.

NORMAN WILLIAMS PUBLIC LIBRARY

ANNUAL REPORT

FISCAL YEAR JULY 2014 – JUNE 2015

Norman Williams Public Library enriches the intellectual and cultural life of the Woodstock community by providing access to literature, culture, current information and technology. The library promotes the love of reading, fosters the free and open exchange of ideas, serves as a gathering place for people of all ages and supports lifelong learning for all.
