Friends of the Norman Williams Public Library

The FRIENDS OF THE NORMAN WILLIAMS LIBRARY, a non-profit tax deductible organization formed for the benefit of the library invites you to join us. We provide special programs, activities and events that augment the NWPL’s mission to enrich the intellectual and cultural life of the greater Woodstock community.

We sponsor weekly bridge games at the library, Meet the Author events, a Love Your Library Open House in February, a Spring Concert in March, tours to literary sites, a Holiday Tea, and our fun-filled fundraiser Puppies & Pooches on Parade in August which is now a new Woodstock tradition.

Plans include organizing discussion groups for mystery lovers, film buffs and current events followers, a gourmet club, and an art symposium – all the interesting things that connect us under the roof of our beautiful Library.

We need you – come share your ideas, hopes, and suggestions!

If you would like to become a Friend of the NWPL, please fill out the following form. Annual membership levels are:
