Book Recommendations - February 2023

FICTION

Enchanted April - Elizabeth Von Arnim - the tale of four very different women who escape dreary London for an Italian castle in Portofino, shortly after World War I

The Christie Affair - Nina de Gramont - why does a famous mystery writer disappear for eleven days? What makes a woman desperate enough to destroy another woman's marriage?

The Great Circle - Maggie Shipstead -The story of a daredevil female aviator determined to chart her own course in life, at any cost

The Speed of Light - Elizabeth Rosner -Beautifully written with three different viewpoints, the characters overcome the terrible tragedies of the past to connect with one another and the world around them.

NONFICTION

Dinners With Ruth- a memoir on the power of friendships - Nina Totenberg -an extraordinary memoir of Totenberg's personal successes, struggles, and life-affirming relationships, including her nearly fifty years friendship with Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

In Love - Amy Bloom - Bloom sheds light on a part of life we so often shy away from discussing—its ending.

**Life On Delay - making peace with a stutter - John Hendrickson - A candid memoir about a lifelong struggle to speak

The Light We Carry - Michelle Obama How do we build enduring and honest relationships? How can we discover strength and community inside our differences? What tools do we use to address feelings of self-doubt or helplessness? What do we do when it all starts to feel like too much?
